

Tomlinscote School

21st September 2021

Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 10 – GCSE English Texts

We would like to offer your child the opportunity to purchase English Literature GCSE texts through school to allow you to take advantage of the school discount we can receive.

Although it is not compulsory for you to purchase any of these texts, it may be something you wish to consider given the discount that we as a school can get on your behalf. Students have access to online books on their ipads however many students find it useful to annotate the books to support their learning. All Year 10 students will be studying these three texts as part of their GCSE English Literature.

If you wish to purchase any of these books, you can do so via ParentPay. Please submit your order by Friday 1st October 2021. When you log in to ParentPay, the books will be listed for you to choose from. When your books have been delivered to school, your child's English teacher will pass them on to your child.

The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde: £1.70

Macbeth: £1.70

An Inspector Calls: £6.60

Please note that students who are part of the Pupil Premium scheme will not need to pay for books and these will be issued by class teachers.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs G Long
Head of English
